To Whom in May Concern:

In 2014, our University set out to establish a study abroad program in Florence, Italy. Over the course of two years at great expense, we visited many potential properties with various real estate agents, but to no avail. We were told by other agencies that what we were looking for in our price range did not exist in Florence or Tuscany. Fortunately, Luxdoma proved them wrong.

Luxdoma is a high quality, turn-key, one-stop-shop that can handle the the most complicated search, identifying top value properties others have missed. The team at Luxdoma were the first to actually listen and respond to our needs! From the legal aspects to the various registrations required in Italy, Luxdoma went above and beyond the call of duty to help us navigate the complexities of real estate investing in Italy. The security and peace of mind provided by the Luxdoma team helped grow the confidence level of our Board and senior management back at the home campus.

If you are in the market for a luxury property in Tuscany, go straight to Luxdoma! Their customer service will exceed your highest expectations. Their professionalism will expedite your search and their genuine attentiveness will deliver results.

You will not be disappointed.

Sincerely,
